RACING GOSSIP.

Commenting on the pinheaded screams of this and that Eastern daily when racing doesn't suit it, Captain Absolute, a generally wise and conservative critic quotes English figures. They are those of the highest class Newmarket and of 1895. Here is the showing:

| Meeting.            | Favorites. | Non-Fav. |
|---------------------|------------|----------|
| First July.....     | 12         | 14       |
| Second July.....    | 7          | 13       |
| First October.....  | 12         | 18       |
| Second October..... | 12         | 16       |
| Houghton.....       | 14         | 13       |
|                     | 57         | 77       |

In commenting on the state of things Charles Littlefield, a good horseman, says: "The average favorites that fail are false ones. They are not favorites in public form, but on the strength of an intended haul. Someone has a horse which he gets heavy bettors to back. They think it a sure thing. The horse is so heavily backed that the weight of money makes him a favorite. When he is defeated they cry the owner has 'thrown them down.'"

Mr. Littlefield's comment is backed up by the fact that literary selection chooses more winners than "the talent."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

So far Joe Ullman is said to be over $100,000 ahead of his eastern booking foray.

P., City.—The Latonia meeting closes Saturday next. It will have run thirty-three days.

Leo Mayer sold his Lakeside track interest some ten days ago to Jim O'Leary for $10,000.

J. K., City.—The Oakley fall meeting is to open September 12th and close September 20th.

It is officially announced that there will be no fall meeting of the Louisville Jockey Club this year.

Ramiro, of the Baldwin stable is declared by his people to be a certain starter in the Detroit Derby.

The Jockey Club has killed off the Narragansett Park racing by refusing J. M. Crosby, its owner, a license.

The latest from E. J. Baldwin is a repudiation of his luck and a declaration of retirement—the tenth in four years.

Fred Foster is said to have bought the Cincinnati electric light track with mercantile intentions of early date. Poor Cincinnati!

John O'Neill is going east to take a chance, under the Percy-Gray law betting system. Frank Eckert is at work in St. Louis.

Pierre Lorillard has joined turf issues with Lord Beresford, the new husband of Mrs. Hammersley and the Duchess of Marlborough.

J. S., City.—Ed Corrigan is racing at both Latonia and Milwaukee. Louis Ezell is handling his horses at Milwaukee. He is at Cincinnati.

Mike Sweeney, who is well known to all horsemen and habitués of racing, has secured the betting privileges at the coming Detroit meeting. He leaves for Detroit to-night.

DAILY RACING FORM was in error over its statement of "Lakeland" O'Brien's betting debts. He owes western bookmakers some $10,000. O'Neil & Eckert have markers for $21,000 against him and are among the complainants to the Turf Congress. Beverly is nearly a $1,000 sufferer and Sam Summerfield has the Minnesota man on his tab. All the debts were incurred within a day or two and O'Brien is defiant.

Before he won Saturday's Latonia Prize Nimrod was for sale at $500. He's held higher now and will go for McClelland in the Detroit Derby.

Jockey Slaughter, Barney Schreiber's boy, is right now the best of western lightweights. The genial German has had more than usual luck with jockeys. After all though it is the luck of enterprise, activity and everyday wisdom.

As DAILY RACING FORM opined early in the year, Enoch Wishard is doing well in England. Mac Briggs won the Gatewick Diamond Plate for him Saturday last. Wishard, too, always gets good odds against his winners.

The Manual to be issued about August 17 will be a novelty in turf publications. It will give a handicappers' table usually sold at from $25 to $100 and a table of comparative time for all distances on some thirty American tracks that fits into the handicap table and contains the refined result of five months hard work on the racing of the past eight years. Already some eighty books of the edition have been reserved. It will not be placed on general sale. Its figures will be both patented and copyrighted.
